Camp Program

The purpose of Camp 2008 is to teach and develop basketball skills in all phases of the game. The camp will be expertly organized, and the program will consist of warm-up, individual improvement sessions, and competitive drills.

Offensive Basketball

- Shooting
- Individual moves with the basketball
- Moving without the ball (getting open, setting screens)
- Ball handling (proper passing and receiving techniques)
- Position play (guard, center, forward)

Defensive Basketball

- Proper distance and movement
- Guarding player with the basketball

Team Concept/Team Attitude

Although the coaches and counselors emphasize improvement on individual fundamental skills, time will also be spent on the development of the proper team concept and team attitude.

A Message from Coach Martin...

"We truly believe that our camp provides a unique opportunity for the player who loves basketball and wants to improve his game. We feel that the skills learned at our camp can be the foundation needed to take your game to another level. Giving you the fundamental tools and knowledge to be a complete player and general enthusiasm for the game of basketball is what this camp is all about".
